

MINORITY RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

(a) At the request of shareholders representing one twentieth ($1/20$) of the paid-up share capital, the company's board of directors is obliged to insert additional items in the General Assembly's agenda, if the relevant request is received by the board of directors until at least fifteen (15) days prior to the General Assembly. The request for inserting additional items in the agenda must be accompanied by reasoning or by a draft decision to be approved by the General Assembly, and the revised agenda will be notified in the same manner as the previous agenda thirteen (13) days prior to the General Assembly, and will also be made available to shareholders at the company's website, together with the reasoning or the draft decision submitted by the shareholders in accordance with the provisions of article 27 paragraph 3 of codified law 2190/1920.

(b) At the request of shareholders representing one twentieth ($1/20$) of the paid-up share capital, the board of directors must make available to the shareholders in accordance with the provisions of article 27 paragraph 3 of codified law 2190/1920, no later than at least six (6) days prior to the General Assembly, draft decisions on items included in the original or revised agenda, if the relevant request is received by the board of directors until at least seven (7) days prior to the General Assembly.

(c) Upon request of any shareholder submitted to the Company at least five (5) full days prior to the General Assembly, the board of directors must provide to the General Assembly the requested information on the company's affairs, to the extent they are useful for the actual consideration of the items on the agenda. The board of directors may refuse to provide such information for a substantial reason to be recorded in the minutes. The board of directors may provide a uniform reply to shareholders' requests having the same content. There is no obligation to provide information when such information is already published in the company's website, especially in the form of questions and answers.

(d) At the request of shareholders representing one fifth ($1/5$) of the paid-up share capital, which should be submitted to the company at least five (5) full days prior to the General Assembly, the board of directors shall supply to the General Assembly information regarding the progress of the company's corporate affairs and financial condition. The board of directors may refuse to furnish the requested information for a substantial reason to be recorded in the minutes. Respective timelimits apply on shareholders' minority rights in case of Reiterative General Meetings as well.

In all aforementioned cases, the requesting shareholders will be called to prove their shareholding capacity and the number of shares they hold at the time they exercise their respective rights. Submission of certificate from the entity where the respective securities are held, or confirmation of the shareholding capacity through direct online connection between entity and company constitutes such evidence.
